CAUTION TO DEBTORS.

FROM information received since the death of my late partner, C. G. Graham, I believe there are numerous outstanding debts due to the late firm, for which notes were given payable to "C. G. I therefore warn all persons thus indebted not to make payment to any person other than myself or my authorized agent. If they do, they will act in their wrong, and may be compelled to pay again to the surviving partner, who alone is authorized to collect said debts.

The Great Premium Jack,

TUSCARORA!

(Formerly the Property of J. H. Sheffer.)

WILL make the present season at my farm, five miles from Lexington, on the Winchester and Lexington Turnpike, adjoining the farm of Dr. Nicholas Warfield, and will serve Jennets bred by the insurance and losing their foal, may be bred back next year free of charge, grain and grass excepted. Grass will be furnished two months free of charge, and after that time $1.50 per month will be charged. And they will be grain fed if desired, on the usual terms. I have two hundred and seventy-five acres of fine grass as it is to be found in Kentucky, and convenient lots to feed and foal in, and every care will be taken of jennets, and their colts, sent to this Jack, but no responsibility for accidents and escapes, should they occur. The season has commenced, and will expire the 1st of December.

TUSCARORA is so well known as a Jack of unsurpassed merit, that I deem lengthy description of him unnecessary. It is confidently believed that he is the best aged Jack in Kentucky, and this has been fully tested in the different rings of the Agricultural Fairs of the State before the best judges. He has taken premiums at all the Fairs, viz: at Lexington, Park Winchester, the State Fair, and has from a colt up been beaten but twice. His blood, size, form, and appearance, eminently place him at the head of all animals of his class in the United States.

Description and Pedigree.

TUSCARORA was 5 years old the 20th of June last, is 16 hands high, a beautiful black; mostly nose is in fine health, with more smooth, good action than any large Jack I have ever seen.

He was sired by Mammoth Warrior, (the Robt Smith Jack,) Mammoth Warrior was by Young & Everett's imported Mammoth, and out of a Warrior jennet. Tuscarora's dam, Isabella, was by Tippecanoe, gr. dam by Mohican, (a Jack purchased in New York by Samuel Shannon, Esq., and brought to Kentucky,) a descendant of the Royal Gift; gr. dam by Achilles, he imported by the Hon. Henry Clay. ISAAC O. ROBINSON.

Fayette county, mar11 wkwtw

The Premium Jack,

SHAKSPEARE,

WILL MAKE THE PRESENT SEASON at the stables of Mrs. E. Nash, 4 miles south of Versailles, on the turnpike to McCracken's Ferry, and will serve Jennets at THIRTY DOLLARS to insure a colt. Persons wishing a conditional insurance for Jack or Jennet colt, can, by the deduction of $10 in the former or the deduction of $5 in the latter, be accommodated. Persons not stipulating the terms at the time of sending their jennets, will be charged the insurance price. Jennets losing their colts before foaling time, can be bred next season free of charge. Jennets will be pastured gratis, or grain fed on reasonable terms.

He has proven himself a sure foal getter, and his colts are not surpassed by any Jack's colts in the country. He has formerly stood at $40, but owing to the hard times is reduced thus low.

Description and Pedigree.

SHAKSPEARE will be 5 years old next June, is jet black with many moles, is full of heart and high, with superior bone, style, and action. He has taken four or five first premiums at the different fairs.

He was sired by the celebrated Compromise, and

THE COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT.

J. H. JOHNSON, Editor.

THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1861.

EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

For Congress: JOHN J. CRITTENDEN.

BLIND TOM.—There was a large audience at Capital Hotel hall, to listen to the wonderful performance of the negro boy Tom. His reputation had preceded him, but high as public expectation was raised, we believe that those who heard him were not expecting such a miraculous exhibition of musical power from one in all other respects but little above an idiot.

He gives a matinee to-day at 11 o'clock a. m., and also an entertainment to-night. See advertisement.

A Deserved Testimonial.

On Wednesday, just before the Senate adjourned, Mr. Rousseau arose, as he said, to a privileged question. Addressing the Speaker, he read the following communication, accompanying it with a few brief and appropriate remarks:

FRANKFORT, KY., April 3, 1861.

Hon. Thos. P. Porter, Speaker of the Senate:

DEAR SIR:—The undersigned beg your acceptance of the accompanying cane, as a slight testimonial of your ability, integrity, and impartiality as presiding officer of the Kentucky Senate, and also as a memento of those who entertain for you personally the highest respect and the sincerest regard.

T. F. Marshall, John A. Prall, George Denny, A. D. Cosby, J. E. Gibson, W. H. McBrayer, C. J. Walton, W. P. Anthony, E. D. Walker, L. W. Andrews, W. C. Whitaker, John L. Evans, Chas. Chambers, Benj. P. Cissell, John M. Johnson, Samuel Haysar, C. D. Darnaby, A. L. Davidson, C. D. Pennebaker, A. P. Grover, A. G. Rhea, S. E. Dehaven, John F. Hise, H. M. Rust, Robert E. Glenn, L. H. Rousseau, W. B. Read, Thos. S. Grundy, Samuel H. Jenkins, W. C. Gillis, J. C. Wickliffe—Secretary, J. H. Johnson—Assistant Secretary, Morgan E. Chinn—Sergeant-at-Arms, Thos. Pearce—Doorkeeper, George W. Lewis—Reporter for Commonwealth, Sam C. Sayers—Reporter for Yeoman.

The Speaker, as may be supposed, was somewhat taken by surprise, but replied as follows:

MR. SENATOR: To you, and through you to the members and officers of this Senate, I tender my sincere thanks for this beautiful present. I can assure you, sir, that the gratification I feel upon this occasion is not a little enhanced when I reflect that the gift was not presented by political partiality, but by a higher and nobler feeling—that of friendship.

This cane, sir, shall remain as an heir-loom with me and mine, and in the years that are to come, when you and I shall have passed away, my children and my children's children will, when they look upon it, feel a proud satisfaction in believing that I, in the opinion of Kentucky's Senate, could, amid times of revolution, and in the exciting scenes that have transpired here, be just to all.

It is, sir, the highest compliment that could have been paid to me, and for it I again return you the thanks of a grateful heart.

The cane is of ebony, solid gold head, which bears this inscription:

"Senate of Kentucky—Extra Session, 1861—to its Speaker, Hon. Thos. P. Porter."

A Topeka, Kansas, correspondent of the St. Louis Republican gives the following description of the Kansas Legislative Halls, &c.:

The Legislative halls are inconvenient, elevated and dirty, and not yet furnished completely. Many of the members are compelled to stand up, or perch upon miserable substitutes for desks, while the lobby for the lack of seats can set on the floor or stand on their heads as best suit their tired limbs. In lieu of desks, a number of small tables, covered with the meanest cotton velvet, are scattered over the floor, each expected to accommodate the elbows of two members. The Speaker's gavel is a clumsy machine, consisting of the top of a bed-post with a chair round stuck in it—a handy weapon of offense and defense. The State of Kansas is poor, and perhaps it would be impolitic for the representatives of 50,000 starving people to put on airs and indulge in luxuries.

The appearance and action of the dominant party are not calculated to impress the beholder with an elevated opinion of the mental accomplishment of Kansas Republicans in general, or of their representatives in particular, yet there may be any number of "signed cets" among the latter. The quantity of bad grammar spouted in the short time since the House convened is sickening to any fastidious disciple of Murray, while the unparliamentary tactics inaugurated are absolutely terrifying to a stickler for the text of Cushing's manual.

MAJOR YELVERTON'S ANCESTRY EXPOSED.—A writer to the London Star relates the following anecdote of Major Yelverton's "great ancestor."

When the illustrious Curran was summoned before the University Board for wearing a dirty shirt, he said: "I pleaded inability to wear a clean one, and I told them the story of poor Lord Avonmore, who was at that time the plain, untidy, struggling Barry Yelverton." "I wish, mother," said Barry, "I had eleven shirts." "Eleven! Barry, why eleven?" "Because, mother, I am of opinion that a gentleman, to be comfortable, ought to have the dozen." "Poor Barry," says Curran, "had but one, and I made the precedent my justification."

THE FIRST COMPTROLLERSHIP OF THE TREASURY.—We understand it to be the purpose of Secretary Chase to call back to the First Comptrollership of the Treasury, the Hon. Elisha Whittelsey, of Ohio.—Wash. Star.

In many parts of Canada, the excitement in reference to the second advent of Christ is again revived, and the new prophets of the Miller school are springing up again.

An inch rope for a halter and a wire for a nose-piece, will make a mule as docile as a lamb.

On Tuesday, in the Senate, Mr. Simpson, in offering his substitute for the H. R. resolutions in relation to the withdrawal of the U. S. troops from the seceding States, made a few remarks, which we wished to publish in connection with the substitute, but did not get them in time. We now publish them, as they answer some of the inconsistent positions of the chief of the "Ophidians."

MR. SIMPSON said: There is a party in this State who utterly deny that the Republican party has in a single instance given any manifestation of a disposition to make any concession whatever to the slave States; and to support this position resort to arguments wholly inconsistent with each other, and which lead to the most absurd consequences. The acknowledged leader of the party assumes this position, and as the proposition of the peace conference in relation to the territories was supported by the commissioners from several of the free States, he, in order to maintain his position, denounces it as utterly worthless, and as a mere device by the Republican party to cheat and delude the people of the South. And yet, wonderful to tell, he informs us in the same breath, that this proposition, which was devised by that party to gull and deceive us, did not, when presented to Congress, receive the support of a single member of the party by whom it was concocted. Such is the unenviable attitude in which even men of very inferior intellect place themselves, by attempting to controvert undeniable facts.

We have heard it asserted by members of this same party, that the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by Congress, does not secure to the slave States any right to which they are not now entitled under the Constitution. It is not pretended by any person that Congress has at this time the constitutional power to abolish slavery in the States where it exists, and therefore those who contend that the proposed amendment is merely declaratory of those rights which are now secured to the slave States, wholly misapprehend or willfully pervert its meaning and purpose. Is there any provision in the present Constitution that would prevent such an amendment of it, as would confer that power on Congress? It contains no such provision. The importance of the proposed amendment is therefore obvious, inasmuch as it supplies this defect.

The extreme southern States could not complain of the loss of their slaves by the action of the people of the free States, because the escape of their slaves was rendered almost impossible by their geographical position in the Union. What, then, was their chief cause of alarm? It was, that in consequence of the policy inaugurated by the Republican party with respect to slavery in the territories, that party would be able to increase the number of free States, until it would have the power to make any amendments to the Constitution which it desired, when it would proceed at once by an amendment thereto, to confer on Congress the power to abolish slavery in every State in the Union. This power, that was then regarded as so dangerous and threatening, has been voluntarily surrendered, and what is now said by this very consistent party to which I have referred about this amendment? Oh! say they, it is no concession at all; it does not amount to anything; it does not even evince a disposition on the part of the North to come to any terms of adjustment with the South. Thus saying in effect, there was no real cause for the outcry which we made about the matter; it has produced the effect which we intended it should, and we would rather that it should still continue as it was, than to have this ground of complaint thus taken from us. Such are some of the inconsistencies of this party.

NASHVILLE, March 31, 1861.

To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

GENTLEMEN: I saw it stated in your paper (I think it was), that Mr. Crittenden would run for Congress in his district. Not noticing anything further on the subject for some time past, I have feared that he will not run. How is this? He will certainly not decline to render his country this further service, let the sacrifice be what it may. At least I hope not. And I trust the friends of the country will urge it on him, and if need be, force him to it.

This is no time for any patriot to withhold his aid when he may do good in the cause of a bleeding country.

Here, we are determined to make Mr. Bell run, whether he be willing or not.

With Crittenden and Bell in Congress, Kentucky and Tennessee would exercise a most salutary influence over the destinies of the nation.

Don't let Mr. Crittenden rest until he consents, and also lend us a helping hand to induce Mr. Bell also to consent.

We are still unwavering in our love of the Union, and we hope to see our twin sister Kentucky stand just as firm as we do, and intend to continue to stand as long as the shadow of a hope is left.

Your friend, M.

NEW ORLEANS, April 2.

Texas advices say that Col. Ford was reliably informed from Matamoros that General Ampudia, with 3,000 Mexicans, was sixty miles off, advancing on Brownsville. Ampudia dispatched expresses with placards and handbills, announcing that Texas rightfully belonged to Mexico; that she had no longer the support of the Federal Government, and that the time had arrived to retake her. Reinforcements in large numbers were rapidly coming to him. Ford ordered all the heavy guns and ordinance and stores at Brazos Island to be immediately removed to the scene of anticipated difficulties.

The Mohawk arrived off Pass Cavallo on the 29th, with 600 troops. The Empire City and Star of the West were lying at the Pass.

DEATH OF A VALUABLE HORSE.—"Little Jim," the property of Col. F. H. McNairy, a four-year-old colt, by Napoleon, died of colic on Thursday night last. On the day of his death he trotted a mile in 3:10, and was considered one of the most promising colts in the State. His owner a short time since refused $2,000 for him.

"SWILL MILK."—The New York Legislature has just passed a bill making the sale of swill milk a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than $50. The adulteration of the lactical fluid, with chalk or other substances, is likewise punishable by $25 fine.

There is a bright Chinese editor in Sacramento, named Ye Yune. He writes well, and is fond of the ladies—just now he is in jail for abducting one.

New York, April 2. The Tribune correspondence says that Gen. Scott has given assurance that there has never been any idea entertained by the Administration of abandoning Fortress Monroe.

The principles announced in the inaugural will not be abandoned, and if military necessity be accepted as to Sumter, it will be for reasons which will not be held to apply elsewhere.

The World says that the Administration discredits the reported sailing of an Anglo-French fleet for our coast.

The Times says it is reported that the Pawnee has been ordered to Sumter to take on board Anderson and his command.

The other southern forts are not to be disturbed.

The southern commissioners have advised Jeff. Davis that Sumter will be evacuated this week.

Advices from Virginia says that the Secessionists, led by Hunter, Floyd, De Jarrette, Mason and Ben McCullough, are making superhuman efforts to carry that State. The letter says some coup d'etat will be resorted to as in Texas, if the convention fails to carry its point.

The bids for the new United States loan were opened to-day. About $30,000,000 were bid for. The average for accepted bids was about 93, and no bid was accepted below 93 7-100. The bids ranged from 90 to par.

A letter from the Secretary of the Treasury to collectors says, "In consequence of the control of the warehouses of the Government in ports of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Florida and Texas having been usurped, it is impracticable to continue the bonding of goods for transportation to those ports, and collectors are instructed that no entries for transportation in bond to said ports can be permitted."

Remedy for Baldness.

A great many persons complain of a "falling out of the hair," and we have known instances where "scratches" and "wigs" had to be resorted to in order to hide the defect. In these cases, the victims had procured and used all the patent hairdresses known to the hair dressers, but they did no good. Any thing that would have the effect of causing the hair to grow out thickly, just as it was wont to do before falling out, of course would be considered invaluable. And to those who are looking for "that same" we say that we have been assured by those who have tried it, (our hair is sound as a dollar, and yellow as a sassafras!) that sage water will have the desired effect.

To prepare it, pour boiling water on sage leaves—a handful—and let them remain some time in the oven, or near the stove; then strain, and apply the water to the roots of the hair daily.

An English friend, recently arrived in this country, and from whom we got this recipe, assures us that he has known numerous instances where the article not only caused the hair to come out as before, but actually made it more abundant! It is worth a trial, and can certainly do no harm, if it will do no good.

DEATH OF COMMODORE WILKINSON.—Commodore Jesse Wilkinson, United States Navy, died at his residence in Norfolk city on Saturday, in the 77th year of his age, and he was buried yesterday afternoon, officers of the navy, the marines on this station, the Norfolk volunteers, and a large concourse of citizens attending upon the obsequies. He entered the service 10th July, 1805, and held his commission as captain since the 11th March, 1829.

A solemn requiem was sung on the 8th, at St. Andrew's Catholic Church, Newcastle, for the souls of the unfortunate persons slain in the streets of Warsaw by the Russian soldiery. The ceremony was of an imposing and impressive character.

One of Agassiz's students who was sent to Washington to procure contributions for the Zoological Museum, from the Smithsonian Institute, gives the following description of a Washington reporter:

Miss Angelina Partington says that her mother "don't believe a word about the moral tariff—she believes that all politics and politicians are immoral."

We would call the attention of those suffering from Consumption, Bronchitis, &c., to an advertisement in another column of this paper, of an important discovery for the cure of those diseases, now introduced for the first time to the American public by Messrs. Leeds, Gilmore & Co., of New York.

Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. Cephalic Pills

CURE Sick Headache

CURE Nervous Headache

CURE All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack, immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject. They act gently upon the bowels—removing Constipation.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alternative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alternative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Bores, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Syphilis and Syphilitic Affections, Mercurial Disease, Dropsy, Neuralgia or the Douleur Serpente, Debility, Dyspepsia and Indigestion, Erysipelas, Rose or St. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY of the Blood.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to drive the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them such rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alternative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this purgative of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

Every large bottle, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been found upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO.

LOWELL, MASS.

Price, $1 per Bottle; Six Bottles for $5.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR THE CURE OF Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Erysipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetters, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and for Purifying the Blood.

They are sugar-coated, so that the sensitive stomach can take them easily, and they are the best aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Price 25 cents per Box; Five boxes for $1.00.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of these remedies, but our space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named, between your suffering child and the relief that is given; with also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for their cure.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations they make more profit on Demand AYER'S, and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.
